

Self Portrait Writing

a beginning and end of the school year activity

Terms of Use: This free printable was created for you to use at home with your child/students or with multiple children in a classroom setting. Please do not sell, host, reproduce, giveaway, or store on any other site (including a blog, Facebook, 4Shared, Dropbox, etc.). Thank you!

©2014 All Rights Reserved.

www.thisreadingmama.com

Directions:
Draw a picture of your face on the left side. Look in the mirror, if you have one. Include details such as your eyelashes or freckles, too!
In the thought bubble, write down what you'd like to fill your head with this school year. What would you like to learn about? Share with someone else.

Directions:
Draw a picture of your face on the left side. Look in the mirror, if you have one. Include details such as your eyelashes or freckles, too!
In the thought bubble, write down what you liked learning about best this past school year. If you have your beginning of the year writing, compare your pictures and thoughts.
.Share with someone else.

✂ Cut out and glue to another paper along with your self portrait.

Directions:

On a separate piece of paper, draw a picture of your face on the left side. Look in the mirror, if you have one. Include details such as your eyelashes or freckles, too!

In the thought bubble on this page, write down what you'd like to fill your head with this school year. What would you like to learn about?

Cut out your self portrait and thought bubble and glue down to a larger sheet of paper. Share with someone else.

✂ Cut out and glue to another paper along with your self portrait.

Directions:

On a separate piece of paper, draw a picture of your face on the left side. Look in the mirror, if you have one. Include details such as your eyelashes or freckles, too!
In the thought bubble on this page, write down what you liked learning about best this past school year. If you have your beginning of the year writing, compare your pictures and thoughts. .Cut out your self portrait and thought bubble and glue down to a larger sheet of paper. Share with someone else.