READING LOGS

Encourage reading stamina with these simple Time to Read printable Reading Logs. Great for the school year or for summer reading!

As kids read, they color in the minutes on their chart. The goal is 1,000 minutes but adapt it to your needs.

Print pp. 2-3 front to back. I recommend printing it on cardstock and using colored pencil or crayon for each square.

For each 10 minutes that you read, color in one small block. When you've colored in all 100 blocks, you've read for 1,000 minutes! Wow
