

Autograph BINGO

Learners can play this fun get-to-know you game AND practice writing their name at the same time! It's perfect for a classroom setting at school, a homeschool co-op, or even a Sunday School classroom. {It's also a GREAT way to sneak in some quick vocabulary with the word autograph!}

Each learner should get their own BINGO board. They walk around the room, asking the questions on their boards to other kids. When the other person answers, "Yes," to a question, they get that person to "sign" their name.

pages 2-3

Geared towards Kindergarten and First Graders who aren't ready to read all the questions just yet. The thumbs up symbol means "like," so on page 3, the first one would be "Do you like the color blue?" The words in each space are there to help you decipher what the pictures represent.

pages 4-5

Geared towards 2nd grade and up. Encourage learners to practice writing their name in cursive, too!
